AFFIDAVIT OF IMMUNITY

Verified Statement of Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El

Pursuant to NCGS § 1-85. Affidavits on hearing for removal, when removal ordered. No action, civil or criminal, shall be removed, unless the affidavit sets forth particularly and in detail the ground of the application.

Re: Any and all Court presentments, wherein the State & Federal United States District, Superior and Federal Courts.
Nottee: To States, Municipalities, Law Enforcement and Court Officers – Notice to the Principal is Notice to the Agent.
Notice to the Agent is Notice to the Principal.

Now Comes; Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El living soul, executor of her own Estate haven taken first lien right ownership over all her and her children's chattel paper property, names and numbers. Cannot be now or in the future be considered a minor. Derivatives thereof, contracts created knowingly and unknowingly from the time of creation are owned by Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El. Further standing Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El is a member of the Yamassee Tribe/ Moor National with sovereign immunity. The Jurisdiction for her matters does not lay within any admiralty maritime court system, operating (on water). Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El is not a party to any contracts by the State of North Carolina or any other State that would bind or waive her sovereign immunity at law.

All adhesive contracts regarding traffic matters or private commercial (civil) matters have been satisfied and appeared to by special visitation, driving records, civil contempt of courts must be abated and made clear of all 'failures to appear'. This is one of the devices that the State is using to falsely impede Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El's movement in commerce on the land in which she has aboriginal title to and is considered part and parcel thereof. The State of North Carolina's efforts to defame the character of the Moor's has already cost the Corporate defacto of State of NC, (101,006,000.00) One Hundred One Million Six Thousand Dollars, as indicated on the State's ledger report for settlements since 2011.

This essentially means that Congress has the final word as to the scope of tribal sovereignty and the powers that Tribes are able to exercise. 21 One exception to this general rule is the doctrine of tribal sovereign immunity. Tribal sovereign immunity is part of federal common law; it was not created by any statute or act of Congress. 22 Rather, the Supreme Court first identified it, and its exact boundaries have been further defined through a substantial body of federal case law. 23 A THE DOCTRINE OF TRIBAL SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY The Supreme Court first acknowledged tribal sovereign immunity in Turner v. United States, 24 in which a non-Indian lessee was barred from suing an Indian tribe for alleged damage done to his property. 25 The Court stated that it is the "general law" that "[l]ike other governments, municipal as well as state, (tribes are) free from liability for injuries to persons or property" 26 In United States v. United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co., 27 the Supreme Court reiterated that Indian tribes are immune from suit when it voided a monetary judgment from a previous proceeding against the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations 28 It stated that tribes do not waive their sovereign immunity when they fail to object to cross-claims in litigation 29 In Puyallup Tribe, Inc. v. Department of Game of State of Washington, 30 the Court held that a state could not sue a tribe to enforce its fishing regulations in Indian country "[a]bsent an effective waiver or consent" from either the Tribe or the United States 31 However, the Court refused to extend this immunity to individual officials or representatives of the Tribe. 32 In Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez, 33 the Court expanded Puyallup's holding by stating that any waiver of tribal immunity "must be unequivocally expressed." 34 In Oklahoma Tax Commission v. Citizen Band Pottawatomie Indian Tribe, 35 the Court rejected a contention that was nearly identical to the one it had addressed in United States Fidelity over a half-century prior, further solidifying the status of tribal immunity as black letter law.36 In Kiowa Tribe of Oklahoma v. Manufacturing Technologies, Inc., 37 the Supreme Court, for the first time, declared that Native American tribes were immune from suit for activities engaged in outside of Indian country. Specifically, the Court declared: "Tribes enjoy immunity from suits on contracts, whether those contracts involve governmental or commercial activities and whether they were made on or off a reservation."38 The Court did express some hesitation in reaching this decision, stating that "[t]here are reasons to doubt the wisdom of perpetuating the doctrine [of tribal immunity]."39 "[T]ribal immunity extends beyond what is needed to safeguard tribal self-governance," the Court stated, and this "consideration[] might suggest a need to abrogate tribal immunity"40 However, because Congress had not specifically abrogated tribal immunity in the context of the case, the Court "decline[d] to revisit [its] case law and [chose] to defer to Congress."41

Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El's status is pursuant to International Treaty. Immunity from prosecution is a doctrine of International law. Sovereign immunity, or crown immunity, is a legal doctrine by which the sovereign or state cannot commit a legal wrong and is immune from civil suit or criminal prosecution. In constitutional monarchies the sovereign is the historical origin of the authority which creates the courts. Thus the courts had no power to compel the sovereign to be bound by the courts, as they were created by the sovereign for the protection of his or her subjects.

The matters of Brandy-Chenell: Brown-El must be turned over to her own government not to the State Corporation, U.S. Corporations and/ or court rooms. Pursuant to NCGS Chapter 52 § 15A-954, (9) the defendant has been granted immunity by law from prosecution. Failure to rebut this declaration within 72 hours shall constitute adhesion and notice of intent to alien all violators.

Affirmed by verified statement.

Further Affiant Sayeth Not.

RE: VIOLATION OF U.S. SUPREME COURT RULINGS REGARDING THE RIGHT TO TRAVEL

SUBJECT: EDUCATION OF LAW ENFORCEMENTS AND NORTH CAROLINA JUDICIARY

Dear Governor McCrory,

We are sending this correspondence to make you aware of the unconstitutional acts committed by your law enforcement agencies and state courts against the people of North Carolina. These acts may or may not have been committed knowingly or unintentionally but we are writing to your office to ensure that these violations are brought to your attention so that they can be addressed and corrected.

As you may or may not know, there are people in your state whose status is ostensibly different than the average US Citizen and are considered Foreign Nationals or American Nationals with certain safeguards and protection under the law. Our primary concern is that their travel rights in your state are not infringed.

In order to educate your law enforcement regarding Foreign Nationals or American Nationals in your state, you can call the Department of State here in Washington, D.C. to get clarity or you can go to the Department of State's website at http://travel.state.gov/content/dam/travel/CNAtrainingresources/CNAManual_Feb2014.pdf for our website at https://www.usadot.gov.org/CNAManual_Feb2014.pdf and download the manual. The Department of State also offers training for your law enforcement officers free of charge to raise awareness and compliance. Log on to: <http://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/consularnotification/training-outreach.html>.

We have enclosed one of our affidavit forms for the exemption of registration and licensing for Foreign Nationals that Foreign Nationals have to file in your state to lawfully claim the exemption. This affidavit also can be used by U.S. Citizens who are not driving or operating a motor vehicle for profit or for hire.

Please forward this information to all of your law enforcement agencies in your state to prevent any unnecessary lawsuits from being filed against these agencies for not following the law and violating the rights of the people to freely travel without interference unless they are a threat to the public safety.

If you have any questions regarding this matter please feel free to respond in writing by mail or fax any questions or concerns you may have and we will be happy to answer and address them.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and consideration in this matter.

Best regards,
